THE SULTAN HARD PUSHER.

Morocco's Ruler Is to Pawn His Own Jewels.

London, Sept. 26.—Dispatches from Tangier give details of the financial straits of the Sultan Abdul Aziz of Morocco, who has been forced to sell his private effects and pawn his jewelry in order to raise money for the troops, who are now defending his throne. He is sending his jewelry to Paris in the custody of Mohammed el-Tazi, leader of the court faction at Fez, and Dr. Verden, an Englishman, whose property at Marrakech was recently destroyed by the followers of the southern sultan, Mulai Hafid. They have instructions to deposit the jewelry in a Paris bank and to raise a loan guaranteed by the deposit. The sultan's financial position has been steadily going from bad to worse. The total debts of Morocco now amount to £2,000,000. One portion of the German loan for $2,250,000, which dates from September, 1905, falls due today, and the French loan of $200,000 must be repaid within a few days.

SAYS OUR STOCKS ABROAD ARE WEAK

Confidence Has Slumped, Says J. H. Flagler; Roosevelt's Acts Are Blamed.

New York, Sept. 26.—J. H. Flagler, who has just returned from Europe, has this to say:
"The standing of the United States and its chief executive has been injured rather severely lately through the activities of the administration. There has been a big drop in the supply of confidence in America."

"Business men and bankers on the continent are sore over the way things are going over here. They are selling American securities and do not want to put more money into them. They have a cynical, almost harsh, feeling against Yankee stocks. In France, particularly, the credit of the United States does not stand well just now."

MULAI HAFID WORRIES THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT

Fearful That He Will Fight for His Brother's Throne.

Paris, Sept. 26.—The chief interest of the French government at present is in the question whether Mulai Hafid will contest by force of arms for the sultanship with his brother, Sultan Abdel-Aziz.
The advice on the subject are most contradictory. Some say that the entire southwest of Morocco is enlisted under Mulai Hafid's standard, and that his khalif, Mulai Rachid, with a strong army, is already marching on Rabat.
Other advice, regarded as more reliable, say that Mulai Hafid's star is waning, that he is without money, that his army is fading away, and that he is seeking a pardon.

UP GOES PIE IN BOSTON, BUT BEANS STAND FIRM.

Bakers Boost Their Prices for Staple of Literary Belt.

Boston, Sept. 26.—Wholesale bakers in this city announced yesterday that the prices of pies and other pastry would be raised on Oct. 1, owing to the increased cost of material.
Nothing has been done as yet toward increasing the cost of bread or diminishing the size of the loaf, but such action, it is said, will follow soon.
No change in the price of beans.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 26.—The James-town exposition directors have passed resolutions inducing Director General James M. Barr and asking him to reconsider his resignation. It looks like a signal victory for Mr. Barr over Tucker, and the friends of the latter admit Mr. Barr has a working majority in the meeting.

RAILROADS HONEST, SAYS W. D. HINES

Thinks That Rate Legislation Merely Exploits Political Activity.

New York, Sept. 26.—Advocates of a continuance of railroad regulation and legislation were criticised by Walker D. Hines, vice-president and general counsel of the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad company, in an address before the members of the New York Traffic club, including the traffic managers and eastern representatives of all the large railroads of the country.
"What the public needs," said he, "is less anti-railroad talk and less anti-railroad tinkering, and a fair investigation of the facts and intelligent enforcement of the laws already passed."

"At present, railroad laws are so far-reaching as adequately to cover all the substantial evils, and the public has been brought to such a state of mind, and the politicians have developed such an enthusiasm for legislation, that any further legislation will cause a vast amount of harm by stimulating further legislative activity, and competitive activity on the part of the politicians in general, and at the same time would add little if anything to the practical safeguards which the public already enjoys."

"My experience is that railroad officials have striven more faithfully than any other class in the community to comply with both the spirit and the letter of the laws regulating them. Considering the vast amount of the railroad business and the bewildering multitude of railroad transactions, I believe that the railroad companies constitute an exceptionally law-abiding class."

"Railroad companies, generally speaking, are earning less than a fair return on the value of their property, and any further reduction in revenue or increase in expenditures through government action is a great injustice to those who have invested in railroad stocks and bonds."

"There is now a condition of undigestion of railroad laws. Some passing more such laws, the federal government and the states ought to take time to understand, and after ascertainment of the facts, enforce the laws they have."

CHICAGO & ALTON AND THREE OTHER RAILS IN COMBINE

Granting of Immunity to Former Removers One Obstacle.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Judge Landis' granting of immunity to the Chicago & Alton railroad for paying rebates to the Standard Oil company removes the only obstacle in the way of the combination of the sale by the Rock Island railroad of a controlling interest in the Alton to the Toledo, St. Louis and Western, or Clover Leaf railroad, and the consolidation, ultimately, of the Alton, the Clover Leaf, the Minneapolis and St. Louis, and the Iowa Central railroads.

As soon as the necessary financial details are adjusted, a reorganization of the four roads will be effected. The independent organization of each, however, may be maintained for some time, and the combination deferred until it is certain that no legal complications will result.

WOMAN SEEKS TO RECOVER $1,000,000.

Petitions to Have Deposition Made by Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick Opened.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 26.—Mrs. W. C. Jutte, widow of the Pittsburg coal operator who committed suicide at Atlantic City, filed a petition to have the deposition of Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, in the case of Mrs. Jutte against F. N. Hofstet and J. W. Friend, opened. Mrs. Jutte brought suit against Friend and Hofstet to recover stocks and securities valued at more than $1,000,000, which she alleged were taken from her by undue influence. The case is now before the superior court.
The deposition of Mrs. Chadwick in the case was taken in the prison at Columbus, O., and to the court, and then sealed. Some interesting revelations are expected in connection with the relations of Mrs. Chadwick and some Pittsburg millionaires.

RAILROAD TAXES ARE GIVEN A BOOST.

Officials Petitioned Board of Review at Chicago for Reductions.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 26.—Railroad presidents, railroad attorneys, chief clerks, auditors and general managers gathered at the rooms of the board of review here, each to petition for a reduction in the assessed taxation of his respective railroad.

In two hours' time the board had listened to the "one-minute pleas," and had acted on some 40 agreements aggregating many millions of dollars of valuation.

In the majority of cases, taxes were boosted in varying amounts. The members of the board declared the total this year about a decided increase in valuation over that of last year.

One of the largest increases was that of the Santa Fe railroad, due to the purchase of considerable real estate inside the city limits.

ORDERED TO PROCEED AGAINST 37 RAILROADS.

All Are Accused of Violating Safety Appliance Law.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 26.—United States district attorneys in various parts of the country yesterday were instructed by Attorney General Bonaparte to institute suits against a large number of railroad companies to recover penalties incurred by them for alleged violations of the safety appliance law.
The department of justice and the interstate commerce commission have determined upon a rigorous enforcement of the law. The facts upon which the prosecutions are to be based were developed by inspectors of the commission. The number of alleged violations aggregate 287.
Thirty-seven railroads, including nearly all of the trunk lines in the country, are under charges.

TEXAS HAS OIL TRUST DUMMY

Kellogg Lays Bare Secret of Standard's Disguise

AS THE "CORSIANA"

Law Is Nullified in Effect—Apparently Sold All Profits of the Lone Star Concern Still Go to a Subsidiary of the Trust.

New York, Sept. 26.—"The Corsicana Oil company, or how the Standard Oil company beat the state of Texas," was in effect the title of yesterday's chapter of the hearing in the federal government's suit to dissolve the great trust. The title was written in by inquisitor Frank R. Kellogg, representing the government.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 26.—As deputy attorney general of the United States, Kellogg is endeavoring to dissolve the Standard Oil trust.

Mr. Kellogg, with the aid of Henry C. Folger, Jr., sitting in the witness chair, Mr. Folger and C. M. Payne control the Corsicana nominally, and Mr. Kellogg has been on their trail for some days. The inquisitor's aim was to prove the government's contention that, since the Lone Star state prohibited all operations within its borders by the trust or any of its subsidiary concerns, the trust has accomplished its purpose by using the Corsicana as a "blind." His progress was calculated to satisfy the most radical trust-busters, considering the limited time consumed.

Mr. Folger, who superintends the refining business of the Standard Oil, told how, through himself and Payne, the Corsicana plant was built with money furnished by the National Transit company, a subsidiary of the trust; how the scheme was suggested to them by Daniel O'Day, then president of the transit company, who died about ten years ago in Europe; how, in 1906, when the adverse Texas legislation was enacted, they "bought" the stock from the National Transit company; this arrangement, involving a large amount of money, being made by means of a verbal agreement with John B. Aycock, of the Standard Oil, who was then president of the management. Kellogg asked afterward how its assets were forwarded regularly to 20 Broadway, and how all the profits still continue to go to the National Transit company.

This testimony manifestly greatly strengthened the government's case along the line involved, serving to illustrate the "dummy" system which it is alleged has represented the trust's habitual method of trying to circumvent adverse legislation.

MONOPOLY TARIFF GRAFT, STATES GOVERNOR FOLK

Protective Policy No Benefit to Workmen; Trusts Hit With One Hand, Fed With Other, He Says.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 26.—In a speech at the state fair here, Governor Joseph W. Folk of Missouri had these things to say about the tariff:
"Any privilege is a graft, whether it be a privilege exercised contrary to law or one that the law itself may give. A tariff so arranged as to create monopoly and to give a few people the privilege of preying on the rest of the people is legalized graft. A monopoly tariff is indefensible under the conditions that exist today."
The protective tariff cannot be for the benefit of the workman. Then for whose benefit is it? There is a tariff of 150 per cent on oil for the benefit of the Standard Oil company, although this same company sells its oil all over the world and for less than it is sold here. We tax hides to hamper the shoe and leather industry, and pay higher prices for the benefit of the beef trust.
"We tax steel rails and obstruct the development of our transportation facilities for the benefit of the steel trust. We tax wood pulp and hamper the printing business by the increase in the cost of paper for the benefit of the paper trust. As if that is not insult to injury, these trusts in almost every instance sell their products for less in foreign countries than at home."

"Until these tariff privileges are eradicated, the trust questions can never be settled. It is well enough to prosecute the trusts, and it is still better to put some of the heads of trusts in stripes for violating the law, but it is hardly practicable to suppress the trusts with one hand while the other is feeding them with the milk of protection on which they grow fat and arrogant."

FOOD FAIR IN BOSTON.

Ceylon Government Will Take Part in Exhibit.

The management of the Food Fair and House Furnishing exposition, which opens at Mechanics' building, Boston, Oct. 7, has completed arrangements, whereby the Ceylon government, through its commissioner, W. A. Courtney, will bring to the exposition a $25,000 national exhibit in the form of a Tea Tent.

Unusual interest attaches to this announcement from the fact that this will be the first time that the Ceylon government has ever exhibited at a world's fair or local exposition in America.

The Tea Tent, or garden, will occupy the entire stage in Grand hall, where it will be the most conspicuous exhibit in the entire building. It will comprise a perfect reproduction of a native Ceylon tea garden, with architecture copied from Buddhist temples more than 2,000 years old. There will be a native Madun, or house, which will be thatched with Ceylon grass by native workmen. All of the attendants will be Cinghese, who will come direct from their native land to take part in the exhibit. The various processes of tea growing will be demonstrated, and photographs of the most picturesque portions of Ceylon exhibited. Tea brewed by native families will be served, and those who enjoy this delicious beverage will be taught to brew it properly.

The much talked of $5,000 free attraction, which is to be a part of the New England Food fair and House Furnishing exposition has been also announced.

It is to be an old-fashioned one-ring circus. Twenty years ago most of the and forty years ago the three ring affairs which now travel under canvas were unknown. This is to be the grown-up of today will recall the old-time one-ring shows as the scenes of their greatest happiness. It is with the desire to renew the pleasant memories of youth in hearts of grown-ups and to give their children an opportunity to table the pleasures which no traveling show can supply, that the management of the food fair has decided to give a real old-fashioned show. Many schemes were considered but none could compare with the one ring circus.

WANT JAPANESE EXCLUDED

Petition to Laurier From British Columbians

DEMAND THE ABROGATION

Of the Treaty if Necessary—Opposition May Make Capital of Affair—Position Against Orientals Likely to Sweep the West.

Ottawa, Sept. 26.—A monster petition signed by hundreds of British Columbians is on its way to the premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier. It prays that, regardless of foreign countries and all sentimental and political considerations, the government immediately pass such legislation as may be required to insure the absolute exclusion of Orientals from the Dominion of Canada.

W. D. Scott, Dominion immigration agent, sent to Vancouver by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, is having a strenuous time there. The Asiatic Exclusion league waited on him at the hotel Vancouver. Mr. Scott asked the speakers how they would remedy the surplus immigration of Japanese, and was promptly answered: "By the abrogation of the treaty with Japan, on the ground that Japan has broken faith with Canada."

It was pointed out by the Exclusion league that the evils complained of were all investigated by the Royal Commission and remedies suggested. Mr. Scott said he was there to deal with the question of future immigration.

So far the Japanese government has made no claim on the Dominion Government for damages on account of the Vancouver troubles.

The presence of Hon. B. L. Borden, leader of the opposition in British Columbia, for the ostensible purpose of looking into the Asiatic immigration problem, has given rise to much speculation concerning the political aspect of the Oriental situation. Sir Wilfrid Laurier's reply to the labor congress refusing to exert any pressure on the Imperial Government to have the Japanese treaty abrogated has been received here with something of a sensation and has intensified the feeling. It is only said that if Borden now takes the position uncompromisingly against Oriental immigration he will sweep the West from Thunder Bay, at the head of the Canadian lakes, to Vancouver. The three prairie provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta are now largely affected by the presence of the Orientals, since so many Japanese and Chinamen have passed over the mountains to the East. The labor of all four provinces is equally affected, and the big railroad contracts are being rapidly filled with Oriental labor. The charge now openly made that W. T. P. Preston, the Dominion Government agent in Japan, is openly promoting the movement of immigration into British Columbia, is arousing vast hostility on the Pacific coast to the Liberal Government of Canada.

PET TIGER'S HOWL SAVES OWNER'S LIFE.

Wayne Adams' House Takes Fire While Family Sleep—Refuses Now to Sell the Cub.

St. Louis, Sept. 26.—The howling of Wayne Adams' pet tiger saved the Adams house yesterday. The house took fire, and the animal began to roar and awakened the family in time to permit them to escape. The tiger was saved, too. It is a beautiful specimen, barely three months old, which Adams has trained since it was one week old. He planned to return to Panama and resume his position on the Gatun dam, and had arranged to sell his pet to the Forest Park menagerie. Now he declares he will not part with the animal for any price.

FEARS FOR STEAMER JAPAN.

Is Reported Lost, With All of Her Passengers.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 26.—A dispatch from Houghton, Mich., says: "The Anchor line steamer Japan is reported lost west of the Soo. She left the Soo Sunday night eleven hours late at Marquette, and nothing has been heard from her. The steamship office here says she may be under shelter at Whitefish Bay."
